Through the generous donations from supporters, the mission is now one of the best-equipped hospitals of the Caribbean.

New techniques and teaching provide families with ready access to specialists able to perform extremely complicated procedures.

This mission hospital is out of necessity, dependent on the generosity of others: only a small percentage of operation comes from patients.

We need your help so that we can depend on a more regular source to help the needy of Pignon and surrounding areas.

Yes, I will help to heal the sick and dying in Haiti by supporting the works of the CMP and Hopital Bienfaisance de Pignon.
